The Martin Public Seating Difference...

ABOUT MARTIN PUBLIC SEATING

Martin Public Seating is a leading end-to-end solution provider for collaborative solutions in K-12 and higher education facilities throughout Ohio.

You'll find Martin Public Seating solutions in every area of the learning environment - from classrooms, auditoriums, and computer labs to your media centers, cafeteria, food courts and staff lounges. At the end of the day, we proudly offer solutions that create social/collaborative environments for your staff and students that fosters learning and the achievement of your organizational goals.

Martin Public Seating was founded by Reland Martin in 1976, expanded by his son, James "Jim" Martin, and acquired in 2014 by Shiffler Equipment Sales, Inc. Martin Public Seating has expanded into one of the largest privately-held education distributors in the Ohio Valley. Headquartered in Seville, Ohio, Martin Public Seating has professional account executives, expert interior designers, highly experienced project managers, and "white-glove" delivery teams. We pride ourselves in our education furniture product knowledge and our focus on delivering personalized customer service.

Martin Public Seating offers expert education infrastructure guidance to help transform your university, college, district, school, or classroom into a world-class 21st century learning environment.

Martin Public Seating's staff are ready to help you create the environment for your students which you have always wanted to provide for their future. Why? Because we believe in the power listening to our customers and matching their goals with world-class suppliers, backed by professional service.

Sincerely,

Mark C. Lewis
President & CEO
